

Independent stories from Hungary.

Films, articles, and conversations by Ray Brown.

A closer look. A personal voice.

Magyar Minute is an independent publication by Ray Brown, an American based in Budapest. Stories begin with curiosity: a conversation, a place, a craft, or an everyday detail that opens a larger question.

People and culture / Food and hospitality / Craft and business / Life in Hungary

Video brings the encounter to life. Articles add context and give each story a lasting home.

DISCUSS A PROJECT

View selected stories and the full media kit online.

Three clear offers.

01 ORIGINAL STORIES

Commission an article, interview, short film, or combination built around your subject in the Magyar Minute voice.

02 SPONSORED SERIES

Support several stories around a coherent theme, with an agreed scope, schedule, and clear sponsorship disclosure.

03 LICENSING

License an existing film or article for your publication, website, or project by agreement.

Selected editorial work

Discovering Debrecen, One Conversation at a Time

The Hungarian Guitar Maker Behind an Unmarked Door

My First Dining Guide Gala 2026

Supported stories. Independent voice.

Paid support is disclosed. Partners may flag factual errors; editorial judgment stays with Magyar Minute. Payment does not guarantee praise.

Budapest.fm offers longer conversations. Dafado offers discovery and reviews. These extensions are scoped separately; sponsorship does not determine review outcomes.

DISCUSS A PROJECT